CORRESPONDENCE. Contributions and all communications relative to news and editorial matter should be addressed to the editor.

THE COURIER PUBLISHING CO.

W. MORTON SMITH, EDITOR.

MR. A. L. BERRY, who sits up nights to manufacture things for the "Daily Drift" department of the State Journal, may be disheartened to learn that the Hastings Nebraska attributes his work to Col. J. H. Ager.

A NUMBER of writers in Current Literature for May try to find Walt Whitman's true position as a poet. Their success isn't remarkable.

THE COURIER doesn't know which to congratulate, Mrs. Frank Leslie or Willie Wilde. Willie is a useless and somewhat expensive piece of bric-a-brac; but Mrs. Leslie is tiresome enough to make almost any man take to drink.

THERE are many people in Lincoln and in all parts of the state who have decided, after a secret conference with their pocket book, not to go to the World's fair.

THE REV. DR. PATTON, chief inquisitor in the Briggs case, in his baccalaureate sermon before the graduating class of Princeton university, spoke regretfully of the waning power of religion.

IT seems a little strange that the head of one of the greatest theological seminaries in this country should take the position that religion is losing its power over the people—particularly as the majority of people, even non-believers, are of a contrary opinion.

NEBRASKA has missed a magnificent opportunity in the world's fair—an opportunity that will not come again for a great many years.

THERE has been a change in the management of the Beatrice Times by which Walter A. Noel, an experienced newspaper man, formerly of Adel, Iowa, becomes associated with Mr. Knotts as joint owner.

A BRACE OF MISTAKES. With what pleasure Governor Crouse must have read the letter written by the Hon. Eugene Moore, auditor of public accounts, to Hon. Joseph Garneau, jr., commissioner general for the Nebraska World's Columbian exhibition!

Repeated protests by the press and people of Nebraska against the continuation in office of Mr. Garneau after he had demonstrated his utter incompetency, were treated with contempt by Governor Crouse.

Perhaps now, when the auditor flatly refuses to issue warrants for some of the absurd vouchers made out by Mr. Garneau, and when the commissioner general is shown to have flagrantly violated the confidence reposed in him, Governor Crouse may at last realize that Garneau is a mistake.

Now that Auditor Moore has called attention to Garneau's "unwarranted and extravagant expenditures," and made it apparent that Garneau has deliberately thrown away state money, perhaps the governor will ask that impeachment proceedings be commenced against himself as the public officer responsible for Mr. Garneau's appointment and official acts.

Auditor Moore finds there are about fifty persons on Mr. Garneau's pay roll; that the commissioner purchased, without authority, $12,005 worth of dishes; that exorbitant salaries are paid, and all kinds of palpably absurd expense items were authorized, and that Mr. Garneau has deliberately misappropriated the state's money in many ways.

Garneau ought to have been summarily removed months ago, and Governor Crouse's conduct in retaining him is inexcusable. Garneau spent $16,000 for a hideous state building that could be duplicated for not to exceed $5,000, and there he stopped.

THE Honorable Thomas Jefferson Majors now appears before the public in a new light. Behold the lieutenant governor as a leader of fashion!

Why let your furs remain at home where moths are almost sure to get into them, when F. E. Volker, a practical furrier, will store them until next winter and guarantee to return them in perfect order.

Mrs. W. E. Gosper's new spring stock of millinery, the finest in the city, is now complete.

When you and your best girl are out for a stroll always make a bee line for June ice cream pavilion Thirteenth and O streets.

Happy days and restful nights result from using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It so regulates all the bodily functions and strengthens the nervous system that worry and fatigue are comparatively unknown and life is truly enjoyed.

After the theatre call at "The Annex Cafe" for a lunch. Everything nice, new and attractive. Prices reasonable.

As to railroad building, will be watched with interest and amusement by the public. There isn't very much the matter with this scheme to build a great railroad on the co-operative plan.

LITTLE SARA.

The following from the Chicago Inter Ocean concerns a little girl very well known in Lincoln. Increasing her skill in the gestic art, under the direction of the ballet master of "America," is a dainty miss of 12 years known professionally as Little Sara.

Premature baldness may be prevented and the hair made to grow on heads already bald, by the use of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer.

FARMERS' ALLIANCE.

Open Meeting of the Lancaster County Alliance at Aukerman's Grove, July 4.

The next meeting of the Lancaster County Farmer's Alliance and I. U. will be held in connection with the picnic and celebration given by the Oak Valley Alliance, on July 4, at Aukerman's grove, five miles northwest of Lincoln.

THE OFFICIAL LINE TO CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION AT MONTREAL. The Nebraska delegation will leave Lincoln at 2:25 p. m., Monday, July 3, by fast through train over the Burlington route to Chicago, thence by special train via Wabash and Canadian Pacific railways to Montreal.

BURLINGTON ROUTE.

When you visit Hot Springs, which you've pretty sure to do some time or another, take the Burlington Route. It is the "Scenic Line" to the Black Hills.

Lincoln people who are anxious to get out of town for a brief rest and for whom the excitement of the World's fair has no attractions are taking advantage of the inducements held out by the Union Pacific.

Do you contemplate going to the world's fair? Of course you do—every one does. But you will not end your journey with a visit to the fair.

Hot Springs, S. D., is almost as famous for its beautiful, healthful situation and its pure, rest-laden air as for the remarkable properties of its thermal waters.

Nestling cozily in a lovely valley and completely girt about by a circling range of protecting hills, the place is a veritable Mecca for health and pleasure seekers.

For the strong and superb drives; interesting walks; out-door amusements; everything in fact that makes the steady hand still steadier and the bright eye still brighter.

The hotel? Hot springs hotels are larger, better, more comfortable than those of any other western resort.

When you visit Hot Springs, which you've pretty sure to do some time or another, take the Burlington Route. It is the "Scenic Line" to the Black Hills.
